Sgt. Harold L. Bark

HOTEL ROOSEVELT
SIXTEENTH ST. AT V AND W
WASHINGTON, D.C.

WASHINGTON, D.C.
JAN 27
6 30 PM
1944
26

Co. "M", 167th Inf.
Camp Pickett, Va.

Mr. & Mrs. Sam Bark
Army Store,
Tuscaloosa, Alabama

HOTEL ROOSEVELT
SIXTEENTH ST. AT V AND W
WASHINGTON, D.C.

MARIA KRAMER, PRESIDENT

Thursday
2 PM

Dearest Mother & Daddy:

I spent one night in N.Y. and came to Washington yesterday. I'll go back to Camp at 6 P.M. today.

Just went up and talked to Lister Hill, and when I told his secretary my name, he jumped up and came around the table and asked if I was Bert's brother. He went to Alabama in 1938. Another elderly man named Lowndes jumped up and asked me

HOTEL ROOSEVELT
SIXTEENTH ST. AT V AND W
WASHINGTON, D.C.

MARIA KRAMER, PRESIDENT

if I was Sam Banks boy. He knows you also.

So I went in and Gen. Hill was very nice. I talked to him & told him about the transfer to the hospital in Tacoma and he called on Gen. Parsons, who is a cousin to our Gen. Parsons. The General said it would be hard to do. Hill, however, said he would

HOTEL ROOSEVELT
SIXTEENTH ST. AT V AND W
WASHINGTON, D.C.

MARIA KRAMER, PRESIDENT

work on it. Can't tell, he might work on it, and then again, he might just be passing the buck. Right? Anyway, time will tell!

Write soon!

Love,

Harold